Asynchronous Requirements

1. Your student is required to log into all 8 classes daily and complete the daily check-in/engagement assignments, along with any other requirement assignments.
2. Your student must log into these classes anytime between 12 a.m. and 11:59 p.m. of that calendar day to be considered present. If your student does not login within these times, they will be considered absent for the class.
3. Your student must be logged into Canvas for 240 minutes throughout the day to be considered for a full day of attendance.
4. All attendance requirements to receive credit in the course will also be enforced.
5. Teachers will be available to assist online students from 7:50 a.m. - 8:15 a.m. daily, as well as during their conference times. Please understand there might be several students that need assistance.

Changing Your Student's Instructional Model

In order to ensure safe procedures and try to maintain a consistent schedule, if a parent wants to change a student from remote instruction to on-campus, he/she will have to wait until the end of a nine-week grading period.

- To change from remote instruction to on-campus for the next nine-week grading period, a parent must contact the campus principal by phone or email no later than two weeks prior to the dates below.

End of the 9-week Period:	Must Contact the Principal by:
October 23, 2020	October 9, 2020
December 18, 2020	December 4, 2020
March 5, 2020	February 19, 2020

- However, to switch from on-campus to remote instruction at any time during the nine-week grading period, a parent must contact the campus principal by phone or email.
